

Intellectual Property Innovation and Disclosure Competition

Do you have a novel idea that you want to pursue? Have you been thinking about taking your research to the next level? Have you noticed a product or process that can be improved? Or, do you simply have an idea that you want to share?

We have an opportunity for you. Enter the second annual UNI Innovation and Disclosure Competition and win some seed money for your idea. UNI Business and Community Services, the Intellectual Property Team, and the Office of Research and Sponsored Programs are sponsoring a simple competition to generate new ideas and disclosures across campus. The top five disclosures will win $500 each and receive additional support for their idea or research. All you need to do is fill out this form by Nov. 17, 2023 and submit it to bill.harwood@uni.edu.

NAME _____
DEPARTMENT _____
EMAIL _____
PHONE _____

Describe your idea, innovation or research project (150 words or less):

Do you think there is any commercial potential for your idea? If yes, please provide some details (not necessary for entering this competition).

If you have questions, please contact Dr. Bill Harwood at bill.harwood@uni.edu.